

Christian Hall Reservation Policy

If you want to get into Christian Hall for Alumni Weekend 2010, read this!

Christian Hall is always highly sought after by alumni attending Alumni Weekend. Christian Hall includes private baths and air-conditioning in each room. Single rooms have one twin bed; double rooms have two twin beds. Each room is outfitted with sheets, blankets, and small towels. Alumni should bring their own pillows, soap, cups, an alarm clock, and bath towels. A continental breakfast will be served on Saturday morning in the hall lobby for overnight guests; coffee and tea service only will be provided on Sunday morning. You may bring sleeping bags for children so they can “camp out” in your room at no extra charge.

Room pricing for 2009 was as follows:

$75 for a single

$85 for a double.

Prices for 2010 have not yet been set.

How do I get a room in Christian Hall?

Space is always very limited in this dorm, and that is likely to be even more the case this year. As always, our 50th anniversary graduates are guaranteed housing in Christian Hall; these alumni reserve their rooms in advance through a special registration form that is mailed to them.

After our 50th anniversary graduates, registration next opens for all alumni who have already celebrated their 50th anniversary (graduates from 1959 and earlier) the opportunity to reserve a room in Christian Hall before the dorm is opened to other alumni. The Alumni Association Board of Directors made this change in 2008 to accommodate the health and accessibility needs of our oldest attendees.

To ensure a smooth reservation process, there will be two reservation days for Christian Hall. The exact dates have not yet been determined for 2010. The dates will be announced in the Alumni Weekend brochure and in upcoming Alumni E-News. The first date will only be for those alumni who graduated in 1959 or earlier. If there are any rooms left in Christian Hall after these alumni have reserved their rooms, then the second reservation day will be for all remaining alumni to reserve a room. (If Christian Hall fills up on the first day, there will be a message posted on the Alumni Weekend webpage by 5:00 pm on the first reservation day.)
