

Vision Statement

God's word declares, "Be holy, as I am holy." Saint Francis Campus Ministry responds to this divine call as it seeks to build up our University as a "School of Holiness". St. Francis of Assisi zealously desired to follow in the footsteps of Christ in all things. Motivated by this penitential example, Saint Francis University embraces its Catholic identity by rooting itself in this wonderful tradition.

Through evangelization, catechesis and loving Catholic service to others we proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ in liturgy, academics, social events, athletics, and in all areas of campus life. In this way the Spirit of God empowers students to faithfully learn and fervently live the radical nature of the gospel in ordinary life.

As a community of faith and love we strive to inspire conversion as we endeavor to meet the spiritual and pastoral needs of our university, especially as they are reflected in our goals of Franciscan education. For we believe that the greatest success in life can only be found by following the will of God.

Liturgical Reflection. . .

Today is the Baptism of the Lord and this is the conclusion of the Christmas Season. Throughout the new year the Diocesan Liturgy Office will discuss the revised Roman Missal. When the new Missal is promulgated in Advent of 2011, the Mass will remain the same. However, the words we pray will sound different. English-speaking Catholics have been asked to follow the Latin text more closely in translation as have the other countries of the world. Our common baptism invites us to profess our common faith in unity with all believers throughout the world.

2011, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office, 925 South Logan Boulevard, Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania 16648
