

Vision Statement

God's word declares, "Be holy, as I am holy." Saint Francis Campus Ministry responds to this divine call as it seeks to build up our University as a "School of Holiness". St. Francis of Assisi zealously desired to follow in the footsteps of Christ in all things. Motivated by this penitential example, Saint Francis University embraces its Catholic identity by rooting itself in this wonderful tradition.

Through evangelization, catechesis and loving Catholic service to others we proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ in liturgy, academics, social events, athletics, and in all areas of campus life. In this way the Spirit of God empowers students to faithfully learn and fervently live the radical nature of the gospel in ordinary life.

As a community of faith and love we strive to inspire conversion as we endeavor to meet the spiritual and pastoral needs of our university, especially as they are reflected in our goals of Franciscan education. For we believe that the greatest success in life can only be found by following the will of God.

The implementation of the revised Roman Missal and the prayers that we say at Mass will take place on the First Sunday of Advent. To prepare for this revision, Campus Ministry will offer a workshop explaining the changes sometime later in September. Two Catholic Updates: The Roman Missal and Changing How We Pray are available in the pamphlet racks in the rear of the church. Please use these hand-outs to begin to prepare for the changes that will take place.

Diocese Liturgical Reflection on the Roman Missal. . . The holy sacrifice of the Mass consists of the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The Introductory Rites begin the Liturgy of the Word. The Liturgy of the Eucharist consists of the Eucharistic Prayer, Communion Rite, and Concluding Rite. The revised ROMAN MISSAL will follow these parts of the Mass which the Church set forth at the Second Vatican Council. The Mass remains the same in ritual; however, the Mass will change in translation this Advent.
